

New Courses in „Israel Studies” for the Summer Semester 2020

Prof. Noam Zadoff
Institute of Contemporary History

622009 PS Contemporary History: Zionism and the State of Israel: A History of Ideas

Through reading different texts of Zionist Ideologists and thinkers, and through analyzing current attitudes towards Europe in Israeli media and film, central ideas and episodes in the history of Zionism and of the State of Israel will be discussed in this lecture course.

622006 UE Historical Excursion: Israel

This course concentrates on critical dealing with different sources and different ways of presentation, which is essential for future historians. A focus is put on how to prepare them for independently organizing, conducting and wrapping-up excursions, which is an important aspect of their future professional practice.

Language of Instruction: English (exams and papers can be also written in German)

Online-enrollment required, starting on February 1st, 2020, on lfu:online
