Staff Mobility for Teaching or Training to ISRAEL

CALL for Applications for Outgoing Staff (scientific and administrative staff)

Erasmus+ Funding available for staff mobility to six academic institutions in Israel during the Summer Semester 2022 and the Winter Semester 2022-23

The EU offers funding for faculty/staff from the University of Innsbruck to spend a maximum of seven days (5 teaching/training days and two travel days) at one of the following academic institutions within the Erasmus+ Mobility Program:

- Tel Aviv University <http://english.tau.ac.il/>
- Ben-Gurion University of the Negev <http://in.bgu.ac.il/en/>
- Bar-Ilan University <https://www1.biu.ac.il/indexE.php>
- Holon Institute of Technology www.hit.ac.il/en
- Beit Berl College www.beitberl.ac.il/english
- ORT Braude College <http://www.braude.ac.il/english/>
- The Hebrew University of Jerusalem <https://en.huji.ac.il/en>

Interested staff (academic and non-academic) can apply for the Summer Semester 2022 or the Winter Semester 2022-23. There are limited spots available. The program includes eight hours of teaching or ten hours of training/job shadowing at the partner institution.

Goal of the Mobility Program: connect with colleagues and students from the partner institution, establish new collaborations and ideas in teaching, research, or administrative jobs, enrich the course offerings at the receiving institution, gain experience and bring new knowledge back to the home institution, professional networking.

Language of Instruction/Training: English (or Hebrew, if the staff member knows Hebrew)

Requirements:

- a. Working contract with the University of Innsbruck at the time of application and during the time of the mobility.
- b. Teaching of at least eight hours or for administrative staff: ten hours of training/job shadowing
- c. A stay of five days plus two travel days

d. A knowledge of English, good enough to teach a specific course (English B2) or to follow the training; Hebrew is not mandatory, but basic knowledge is always welcome (courses are offered through the ISI)

e. For teaching staff: Application Form, CV, List of Publications, Course Proposal (complete list see below)

For administrative staff training: Application Form, short CV, Job description (approx. 200 words); statement of interest (approx. 100 words)

Staff Teaching: Staff should be willing to teach at least an eight-hour course that fits into one of the study programs at the host institution. Please Note: Course proposals need to be accepted by the receiving institution before the mobility program will be approved!

Staff Training: Staff should be willing to take part in the proposed training by the host institution and readily exchange experience and knowledge.

Amount of Funding for one stay: travel allowance of 360 Euros and 160 Euros per day. All amounts will be paid after return and after completing an online participant report!

Selection of Applicants:

All applications will be viewed and ranked. Applicants will get spots as available. If there are more applicants than spots, there will be a waitlist. Course proposals for teaching mobilities and applications for staff training need to be approved by the receiving institution. All applicants will get a response about their application within a reasonable time frame (usually 3-4 weeks). After approval, the applicant needs to sign a Mobility Agreement at least four weeks before departure and apply for a "Freistellung" at his/her department/superior.

Also Needed for the Mobility:

- a. Valid passport (at least six months longer than the stay will last)
- b. Health/travel insurance
- c. approval of the department head
